WORK & LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Walker Bros. The Original Pancake House

Lincolnshire, IL

Server

August, 2013 – Current

- Waited tables at this restaurant, our team worked hard to be recognized by USA Today as one of the "Top Ten Pancake Restaurants in the Nation." Zagat recognizes Walker Bros. as a Chicago's "best breakfast – bar none".
- Developed necessary people skills to ensure that each customer's dining experience was beyond satisfactory, receiving more than two good reviews each shift
- Learned how to work in a fast paced and competitive environment where every second counts and realized that I thrive in places when how hard I work is the only thing limiting my financial gain
- Competed with the other servers, for tables, on a daily basis

Simon Lin's Asian Bistro

Lincolnshire, IL

Sous Chef and Server

September, 2012 – Current

- Fulfilled my passion for the culinary arts, in the kitchen apprenticing under a renown master chef who taught me to prepare haute cuisine from scratch
- Oversaw the work of employees I was responsible to train in order to ascertain that meals were flawless, I developed leadership skills by supervising and training these three new employees who learned how to work in the kitchen
- Further perfected my skills as a server in an upscale restaurant where professionalism and customer service must be flawless, since it is crucial to the ambiance and dining experience, I taught the servers here tips to waiting and increased overall professionalism and productivity

ACTIVITIES

Best Buddies Illinois – Volunteer as Peer Buddy

- Organized events for this non-for-profit organization and spent time with a student with autism throughout high school, personally helping him enjoy life both socially and emotionally
- Participated in campaigns such as “spread the word to end the word,” a fundraiser which informed students how the “R word” is politically incorrect and how saying it affects students with disabilities

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

- Strengths with networking, socializing, and negotiation skills
- I spend my free time cooking, reading, traveling, listening to live music, meditating, and bodybuilding
